Here is a list of the 1,097 disabled parking places at addresses where no nearby resident holds a state-issued disabled license plate or parking credential. It was obtained by matching addresses of disabled parking spaces provided by the city with addresses for disabled license plates and placards issued by the Illinois Secretary of State. Since sometimes the disabled parking space is not directly in front of the disabled person's residence, the Sun-Times allowed for a margin of 6 street address numbers, or approximately three houses, in each direction in finding spaces without corresponding license plates or placards. Some of the disabled parking signs on the list may have been removed since this information was provided to the Sun-Times.
